“CLASSIC CINEMA” FILMS AT THE CENTRAL LIBRARY RESUME WITH “ORDER IN THE COURT”

Showing a Legal Classic Film Series Select Wednesdays in April

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego Public Library will resume its popular “Classic Cinema” Wednesday film series in April 2014, with a legal film series called “Order in the Court.” Four special films from 1949 to 1960 are included in the films to be shown, all dealing with lawyers, legal, or courtroom matters.

Opening the series, the classic lawyer comedy film “Adam’s Rib” will screen on Wednesday, April 2, 2014 at 2:30 p.m. in the Auditorium of the New San Diego Central Library @ Joan A Irwin Jacobs Common, located at 330 Park Blvd in downtown San Diego. The Library’s “Classic Cinema” movie showcase highlights the best movies that are considered “classics.” Audience discussions will often follow the screenings. These events are FREE and open to the public. The full series’ details are shown below:

- April 2 — “Adam’s Rib” (1949) — With husband and wife lawyers Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn.
- April 9 — “12 Angry Men” (1957) — With Henry Fonda, Lee J. Cobb, Martin Balsam, inside a tense jury trial.
- April 16 — “Anatomy of a Murder” (1959) — With James Stewart and Lee Remick, directed by Otto Preminger.
- April 23 — “Inherit the Wind” (1960) — With Spencer Tracy and Fredric March.

Unobtrusive snacks and covered beverages are welcome. Learn about other events at the San Diego Public Library’s Central Library and 35 branches at www.sandiegolibrary.org .
